California Surge Journal of Medicine

ISSHER MONTHLY. OWNER AND PURILSHER RY THE

MEDICAL SOCIETY OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Vol. XIII. No. 7

JULY, 1915

$1.00 a Year

CONTENTS
A. M. A. 251
Editorials
Notice
Original Articles:
Treatment of Infection. By
Sterling Bunnell, M. D255
The Use of the Lane Plates in Fractures. By F. R. Fair-

Gas Bacillus Infection. By Gilbert M. Barrett, M. D26	30
Progress of Ophthalmology in the Year 1914. By Hans Bar-
kan, M. D26	35
Suggestions of Billary Tract
Surgery for the General Practitioner. By Favette W.

 titioner.
 By Fayette
 W.

 Birtch, M. D.
 268

 Some Recent Studies in Gastric

 Secretion.
 By Robert Pollock

 M. D.
 271

(Contents continued on page IX.)

Autonomic Reflexes From the Digestive Tract. By H. B. Reynolds, M. D.....279

The Ring to Ring Incision for Herniorrhaphy. By H. M. Sherman, M. D......282

ENTERED AT SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER

THE "WHY" OF DIETETICS

Smith's What to Eat and Why

Dr. Smith's book describes the fundamental elements of food and the principles underlying its use, gives the essential reasons why a change in diet in certain diseases is desirable, and tells you how to make this change in the most practical, time-saving way. With this book you need no longer send your patient to a specialist to be dieted. The diagnosis made, you can prescribe the proper diet yourself as readily as you do other forms of therapy. The work does not go into the details of chemical analyses of foods, but places all emphasis on the strictly practical side—on those facts you want to know—must know to meet the requirements of your every-day practice. The frequent marginal notes you will find useful in consulting the book. They aid in finding quickly the information desired on any particular page.

Buffalo Medical Journal—"This is a sane and clever book. It is to be emphatically commended for its freedom from narrowness or extreme enthusiasm; and for giving the reader a practical knowledge of the elements of nutrition, and of the role of the different varieties or kinds of food; of the need that meals should be attractive and have ample generosity and variety."

Octavo of 310 pages. By G. CARROLL SMITH, M.D., Boston, Mass.

Cloth, $2.50 net.

W. B. SAUNDERS COMPANY

West Washington Square, Philadelphia

FRANK F. WEDEKIND--- ABDOMINAL SUPPORTERS

(SEE PAGE XIX)